NEXT RUN DATES:

1. May 17th – Alex Gallacher
2. June 21st – Presidents Run Bob Pritchard

We meet on the 3rd Sunday of each month at Centennial Lakes, Caboolture (opp tennis courts) at 8.30am for a 9.00 departure unless otherwise advised.

Our Northern Districts Social Car Club exists for the pleasure of getting together with great people that have the similar interests.

So please, try to make the effort to come along on these runs.

Our members go to a lot of effort to organize our events.

Inside this Issue:

- March run report
- April run report
- Interesting facts.
- Swap meets and Upcoming events.
- Jokes and funny stories
- Recipe

March run – Organised by Chris and Sharon Tilyard.

We all met at Centenary Lakes at Caboolture for our usual 9.00am start. We had good turn up for this run. We all hung around and had our normal chin wag before heading off a bit after nine. Headed North along the Bruce Highway and on to Steve Irwin Way, it was good to drive on a quiet road after the rat race on the Highway. We had a nice scenic drive all the way to Palmwoods.

The best part of the drive was down Maleny-Montville Road. This is MY kind of road! At one point, Jayne said to me, “Dad, we’re not at Lakeside now!” Chasing Chris and Craig down the mountain leaving the Coolings behind, probably because Bob had Lorraine with him. Arrived at our destination of Kolora park. It was a beautiful spot with a nice big lagoon; lots of ducks and wild life. It had nice barbeques, a shelter and plenty of seating. We all sat around to enjoy our lunch and plenty of chin wagging again.

Thanks Chris and Sharon for the run today, it was a nice drive and a good day out.

Bob.

NDSCC run – Sunday 19th May.

Well we met at the usual place at the usual time and left to head out towards Woodford.

A little disappointing with only 6 cars along for the ride, but we all managed to have a good day.

I've got to say that I have never travelled the way that Jen and Stan took us through the back of Caboolture and Elimbah stopping for a lovely morning tea at Wamuran and then heading off another way I haven't gone before to loop back to Woodford to the train station.

For those of you who have never been to this lovely spot, the railway is run by the Australian Narrow Gauge Railway Museum Society. For the small sum of $5.00 ($4 for pensioners) you can jump on the little train that travels a short distance through bushland past a display of timber carving to another platform. We all jumped off the train and had a stroll around the beautifully kept gardens and enjoyed a lovely lunch at the Champagne and Roses Café.

Some of us had brought our own lunch and we sat outside in the gardens and just enjoyed the sunshine and the company.

The Durundur/Woodford station was established along the Stanley River near where Woodford now stands in 1841 . Woodford was the terminus for the now dis-used railway branch line, which reached Woodford in 1909 going from Caboolture to Kilcoy. The railway was closed in the 1960's.

After lunch and another stroll around the gardens, we headed off for home.

A big thankyou to Jenny and Stan Valance for the run – it was beautiful!!!.

Denise Douglas.

Who's this with a good looking sort - Oh it's Ron.

Can't get catches like this around here. Had to go to 1770.

The Blind Bunny

'Oh please excuse me,' said the bunny. 'I One morning a blind bunny was hopping down the bunny trail and tripped over a large snake and fell, kerplop right on his twitchy little nose. I didn't mean to trip over you, but I'm blind and can't see.'

'That's perfectly all right,' replied the snake. 'To be sure, it was my fault. I didn't mean to trip you, but I'm blind too, and I didn't see you coming. By the way, what kind of animal are you?'

'Well, I really don't know,' said the bunny.. 'I'm blind, and I've never seen myself. Maybe you could examine me and find out.'

So the snake felt the bunny all over, and he said, 'Well, you're soft, and cuddly, and you have long silky ears, and a little fluffy tail and a dear twitchy little nose. You must be a bunny rabbit!'

But by the way, what kind of animal are The bunny said, 'I can't thank you enough. you?'

The snake replied that he didn't know either, and the bunny agreed to examine him, and when the bunny was finished, the snake asked, 'Well, what kind of an animal am I?'

The bunny had felt the snake all over, and he replied, 'You're cold, you're slippery, and you have no balls... You must be a

The Jewish Elbow...

A Jewish grandmother is giving directions to her grown grandson and his wife who are coming to visit.

"You come to the front door of the apartments. I am in apartment 301. There is a big panel at the front door. With your elbow, push button 301. I will buzz you in. Come inside and the elevator is on the right. Get in, and with your elbow, push 3rd Floor. When you get out, I'm on the left. With your elbow, hit my doorbell. OK?"

"Grandma, that sounds easy, but, why am I hitting all these buttons with my elbow?

Loaded Mashed Potato

Cooking time 60mins

Serves 10

This can be your signature dish you bring to parties

Ingredients 5 pound russet potatoes

10 slice bacon

8 ounce cream cheese, room temperature

1/2 cup unsalted butter, melted

1 cup sour cream

1/4 cup chives, minced

2 1/2 cup cheddar cheese, grated

2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Peel potatoes, and cut into 1-inch chunks. Place in a large saucepan, and add enough cold water to cover by about 2 inches. Bring to a boil over medium-high heat, and reduce to a simmer. Cook until tender and easily pierced with a paring knife, about 20 minutes.

Transfer to a colander to drain; return to pan, cover, and set aside.

2. Meanwhile, heat a large skillet over medium heat. Add bacon, and cook until crisp and browned, turning once. Transfer to paper towels to drain; let cool, and crumble into pieces.

3. Using a fork, mash the potatoes in pan until light and fluffy. Add the cream cheese, butter, and sour cream, and stir until combined and smooth. Add the chives, 2 cups cheddar cheese, half the bacon, salt, and pepper. Stir until well combined.

4. Transfer to a buttered 3-quart baking dish. Top with remaining 1/2 cup cheddar cheese. Bake until top is slightly golden and potatoes are heated through, about 30 minutes. Remove from oven; garnish with remaining bacon. Serve immediately

I don't have gray hair. I have "wisdom highlights". I'm just very wise.

If God wanted me to touch my toes, he would've put them on my knees.

Why do I have to press one on the telephone for English when you're just going to transfer me to someone I can't understand anyway?

Of course I talk to myself, sometimes I need expert advice.
