Montville Razorback: March, 2021

Run by Rod and Vanessa – Report by Alex

Well, it seemed the weather Gods were on our side this day as the crowd – including the usual suspects arrived at Centenary Lakes for our run to Sippy Downs for lunch, via Peachester for morning tea. Your correspondent showed some serious bravado arriving in his “topless” MG proclaiming what a beautiful day it was for a drive.

We took off for what turned out to be a fairly uneventful, but extremely pleasant run up the D’Agular through Woodford, taking the Kilcoy-Beerwah road to Commissioner’s Flat Rd. This led us along a twisty and very picturesque route with impressive scenery on both sides towards our morning tea stop. As we settled in for a cuppa under one of the shelters, a small shower passed over, prompting the wiser heads in attendance to suggest to your correspondent “better put the roof up”.

What followed was a lesson in the intricate and demented thinking of British car manufacturers of the era with respect to design and erection of folding convertible roofs. Fortunately Rod had some knowledge of the plan and with his assistance, the operation was completed (a) before it rained again, and (b) with only a modicum of improper language!

Suitably fed and de-watered we set off on a magnificent run to Sippy Downs protected from the elements. The route took us along the winding Bald Knob Rd, skirting the impressive Crohamhurst Conservation Park on the right hand side to Bald Knob, then to Balmoral Ridge and the Maleny Montville Rd.

This took us to Montville and along another enjoyable, though quite twisting road aptly named “Razorback! This finally took us to Palmwoods, and from there a series of twists and turns under a railway line and over the Sunshine Motorway to Sippy Downs Drive (nearly there). From there it was a short drive through the new development and university to a great little café where we enjoyed some great homecooked food and drinks.

Did I mention it had started to rain quite heavily, and the drive home was quite exciting for your correspondent? Well it was, with no demister and wipers unable to cope with a torrential downpour and the deafening sound of the rain on the canvas roof, it proved an exhilarating end to what was an extremely enjoyable and interesting drive.

Many thanks to Vanessa & Rod for a really well thought out excursion.

Harlin Hotel: April, 2021

Run by Stan and Jenny – Report by Editor

Another great turn out of members for this run at Centenary Lakes, even with the morning being a bit chilly. After the typical chin wag from our members, run sheets were handed out and off the cohort departed to Yowie Park in Kilcoy.

Once in Kilcoy, we took at the opportunity to look around and even stuck our head in the yowie picture frame.

Soon it was time to head off, after a very light morning tea in anticipation of the generous pub lunch. We enjoyed the brief yet interesting drive to the Harlin hotel, it always surprises me how many back roads that a tucked away between Woodford, Blackbutt and Esk! Finally when we arrive it was time to get down to business, LUNCH!

Thank you Stan and Jenny for an excellent run! These kinds of runs are the bread and butter of the club and are always fantastic to go on.
